76th Assembly District
2021 Earth Day Youth Art Contest
Submission Form

In support of local young artists, the 76th Assembly District is holding a youth art contest in celebration of Earth Day in the month of April. Winning artwork will be exhibited and displayed at the State Capitol and/District office. This year's art contest theme is "Restore our Earth" and spotlights the importance of community care, conservation, and protecting our natural resources. Contest winners will be announced in April and receive a California State Assembly Certificate.

If you are interested in submitting your artwork for this contest, please complete this form and submit with your artwork. Choose only ONE category below when submitting your artwork. (Check one.)

- ○ Best Creativity Award: Kindergarten - 5th Grade
- ○ Emerging Artist Award: 6th Grade - 8th Grade
- ○ Contemporary Young Artist Award: 9th Grade - 12th Grade
